REFERENCE LETTER

The Administrative Council of international French organization “International Human Rights Defense Committee”(fr. CIPDH. Comité International pour la Protection des Droits de l'Homme) is in hurry to inform you the CIPDH is a legal organization and the organization’s activities are strictly regulated by international law, international pacts and conventions, as well as in accordance with local laws.

International Human Rights Defence Committee is registered in the system of the United Nations (registration number is 162389). CIPDH maintains international projects in the field of human rights protection and acts under direct agreements with the state law enforcement structures.

Main objective of International Human Rights Defense Committee (CIPDH) is the protection of inalienable human rights, support of state, international, public, religious and other organizations in struggle against the illegal actions which are violating human rights.

I am hoping a lot for further cooperation with your service and I am obliged to clarify the situation about our employee Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer, and to provide a character reference for Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer, whom I have known for 10 years in my capacity as International Development Department Director at International Human Rights Defense Committee. CIPDH. (Fr. Comité international pour la protection des droits de l'homme.)

During this time, I have consistently found Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer to be a person of honesty and reliability. He is a responsible individual who demonstrates a strong work ethic and a commitment to fulfilling his obligations.

Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer, who has been employed at International Human Rights Defense Committee. CIPDH as a financial consultant and project manager for 10 years, has consistently demonstrated himself to be a highly skilled and valuable member of our team.

He possesses a wealth of professional experience, particularly in the Eastern Europe region, with a strong focus on Germany. His in-depth knowledge of finance and investment, and keen understanding of the maintenance of international projects make him an invaluable asset in our activity. This unique combination of skills allows him to be useful team member, ensuring our reporting is comprehensive and culturally sensitive.

Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer is also a respectful and well-regarded individual within our company and the wider community. He interacts positively with people from diverse backgrounds and possesses a strong sense of fairness.

CIPDH issued Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer a personal service document titled "Diplomatic Passport" # 5CD000702 for confirming his immunities in Sierra Leone and Guinea, where CIPDH has official missions. All personal special documents, issued by CIPDH, remain the property of CIPDH, and only CIPDH can confirm their legitimacy.

I consider Mr. Waldemar Schlemmer a respectable and law-abiding person with a good business reputation.

Please feel free to contact us about this case and please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely,
CIPDH Vice-president
CIPDH Development Department Director
