Subject: Appointment of official representative.

The Administrative Council of the International French Organization “Comité International pour la Protection des Droits de l'Homme” (IHRDC-CIPDH) hereby officially announces that, pursuant to a formal decision of the Executive Board, Mr. Walid Haddad, Chief Legal Officer of CIPDH, has been appointed as the Special Representative of the Organization for Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, and Kuwait.

In this capacity, Mr. Haddad is fully empowered to represent the interests of CIPDH, engage in dialogue with state authorities, international agencies, and non-governmental organizations, and oversee all operational activities related to the promotion and protection of human rights within the specified jurisdictions.

Furthermore, the Administrative Council explicitly authorizes Mr. Haddad to liaise with the competent governmental authorities of the Republic of Lebanon to initiate and finalize all administrative and legal procedures required for the formal recognition and establishment of the official CIPDH Regional Representative Office in Lebanon, in full compliance with applicable domestic laws and regulations.

The Administrative Council expresses its full confidence in Mr. Haddad's professional expertise, dedication, and integrity in carrying out this mission.
